

What each tool scores variants that were tested in the laboratory tested positive    tested negative

Each dot is one variant; black bar is the median. AVI is a composite pathogenicity score, so its panel is restricted to non-coding and synonymous variants, where a high score cannot come from a protein consequence.